Grant Us Your Salvation

It is a natural tendency to prepare, taking whatever steps necessary, if there is urgent news of a coming storm or earthquake. This signal is enough for us to prepare for the calamity. We take warnings seriously.

More than 2,000 years ago, Jesus told us to be watchful at all times and pray until his return. He gave us the warning to be on guard at all times. Yet this warning goes unheeded and forgotten. In the Gospel of Luke 21.25-28, Jesus repeats this reminder: 'the Son of Man is coming in a cloud with power and great glory'. Therefore, be on guard to be able to escape all that is going to happen and to stand before the Son of Man.

(continued from front cover) Today we begin the season of Advent; the season in which we prepare for the celebration of Christmas. Signs of justice, righteousness, salvation and safety as promised, are everywhere. 'Being watchful and praying' said St. Luke 'is being able to live to see days of justice, for it is being on guard against sinfulness, that pleases God'. We may not be able to see the last day in our lifetime but one thing is certain: we will die and face God in judgment. With this in mind, prayer plays a very important role for our moment of salvation. Prayer gives us the grace of turning back to God, asking for divine assistance in our struggle to remain with him at all times, as we wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ on the Day of Salvation.

Let us make this Advent season truly meaningful and fruitful. As we prepare for Christmas, let us take seriously and sincerely the inevitable moment when we will come face to face with God. May He find us awake, alert and ready to meet Him with joy now and for always! "Show us your steadfast love, O Lord, and grant us Your Salvation." Amen. ~ Fr. Neil
